

Dear Parent: Dear Parent: Serving God’s word is as important serving the meal. Hope you can find a place for these cards on your dinner table. This set of cards focuses on loneliness, something every child is sure to experiences but a special hurt for single parent children. May these scriptures be a blessing to you and yours.

Teachers: If you punch a hole in the top and put them on a shower curtain hook the cards make a great set of keys to open the gates of heaven on earth.
